The Company shall not discharge, terminate, demote, suspend, threaten, harass, either directly or indirectly, or discriminate against any Employee who files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under the Insider Trading Regulations, irrespective of whether the information is considered or rejected by SEBI or he or she is eligible for a Reward under the Insider Trading Regulations, by reason of: (a) filing a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under the Insider Trading Regulations; (b) testifying in, or otherwise assisting or aiding SEBI in any investigation, inquiry, audit, examination or proceeding instituted or about to be instituted for an alleged violation of the insider trading laws, or in any manner aiding the enforcement action taken by the Board; (c) breaching any confidentiality agreement or provisions of any terms and conditions of employment or engagement solely to prevent any employee from cooperating with SEBI in any manner.

For the purpose of this Clause, 'Employee' shall mean any individual who during employment may become privy to information relating to violation of insider trading laws and files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under the Insider Trading Regulations and is a director, partner, regular or contractual employee, but does not include an advocate.

It is further clarified that the Company does not require any Employee to establish that: (a) SEBI has taken up any enforcement action in furtherance of information provided by such person; or (b) the information provided fulfils the criteria of being considered as an 'original information' under the Insider Trading Regulations. No Employee that has filed a Voluntary Information Disclosure under the Insider Trading Regulations will be required to notify the Company of such filing, or seek its prior permission or consent or guidance of any person engaged by the Company, as the case may be, before or after such filing.
